Committee Report for the Year Ended 31st March 2017

The committee present their report together with the accounts of the year ended 31st March 2017.

Form and Purpose of the Charity

Scottish Transport Studies Group (STSG) was founded by a constitution last amended in September 2004. It was recognised by the Inland Revenue as a Scottish Charity on 6th May 1987 (Ref no SCO14720) and is thus exempt from most forms of taxation.

Principal Activity and Committee Objectives

The aim of the charity is to stimulate interest in and develop awareness of the transport function and its importance for Scotland, its economy and society. It encourages contacts between operators, public bodies, users and others interested in transport. It improves information provision and promotes research, issues publications and organises seminars to these ends.

Administrative Structure

Membership is open to public bodies, transport operators, other organisations and to individuals. A committee is elected at the Annual General Meeting to have executive power, and half the committee are re-elected each year. Details of the committee members are shown on page 2.

Review of Activities

During the year the charity published papers on bus policy, technology and transport, collaborative delivery, the role of railways, in addition to regular updates on research publications and news.

Through the website and in printed publications STSG promoted discussion of transport issues in Scotland and these continue to be well read by people from across the world but particularly Scotland and UK. The charity aims to develop awareness of transport problems and opportunities, and to stimulate discussion and held two round tables, one on collaboration in transport and one on road pricing.

Reserves Policy

It is the policy of the committee to keep approximately six months expenditure as a reserve against decreases in membership and sponsorship, meaning that activities could continue for a period of time. At 31 March 2017, this aim was achieved and reserved look set to grow further with rising publication revenue in 2017.

Statement on Risk

The committee keeps under review the major risks to which the charity is exposed and mitigate those risks which have been identified. As of 31 March 2017, no new risks were identified that needed additional action provided the organisation continues to be effectively managed on a day to day basis.

Statement of Committee Members' Responsibilities

Charity law requires committee members to prepare accounts that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity, and its incoming resources and application of resources including its surplus and deficit for that period. In doing so, the committee members are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- Prepare the accounts on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume the charity will continue its activities.

The committee members are responsible for keeping accounting records which disclose at any time the charity's financial position and enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with charity law. The committee also have general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to it to safeguard the charity's assets and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.

Costs associated with preparation, printing and publication of documents and the administration and organisation costs for the group are largely covered through voluntary inputs by committee members. External costs including catering and venues for meetings are reimbursed from charity funds.

On behalf of the committee,

Respective Responsibilities of the Trustees and Examiner

The Charity's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) regulations 2006. the Charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulation 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
